

This is another step down the road to someplace we really don't want to be. It will take away another chunk of individuality in this country, and be a crippling blow to our democracy. Please step back from this mistake.